

PhD Public Administration and Management

Programme code

07267113

Candidates will only be considered for admission to the PhD in Public Administration and Management if the School of Public Management and Administration is convinced that the applicant has gained sufficient research knowledge on the masters level to conduct research for and complete a doctoral thesis.

For more information, please consult the Faculty webpage.

Disclaimer: This publication contains information about regulations and programmes of the University of Pretoria. Amendments to or updating of the information may be effected from time to time without prior notification. The accuracy, correctness or validity of the information contained here is therefore not guaranteed by the University at any given time and is always subject to verification. The user is kindly requested to verify the correctness of the information with the University at all times. Failure to do so will not give rise to any claim or action of any nature against the University by any party whatsoever.

Faculty notes

The Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences aspires to be at the cutting edge of economic, financial and management education, as well as research and community engagement within the national, African and global context. Our mission is to advance relevant knowledge and develop employable, innovative and diverse graduates to co-create value for society.

Minimum duration

2 years, full-time

Admission requirements

Relevant master's degree A cumulative weighted average of at least 65% for the master's degree
