

PhD Agricultural Economics

Programme code

07267091

The PhD programme in Agricultural Economics consists of a thesis and an oral examination.

For more information, please consult the Faculty webpage.

Disclaimer: This publication contains information about regulations and programmes of the University of Pretoria. Amendments to or updating of the information may be effected from time to time without prior notification. The accuracy, correctness or validity of the information contained here is therefore not guaranteed by the University at any given time and is always subject to verification. The user is kindly requested to verify the correctness of the information with the University at all times. Failure to do so will not give rise to any claim or action of any nature against the University by any party whatsoever.

Faculty notes

The Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences aspires to be at the cutting edge of economic, financial and management education, as well as research and community engagement within the national, African and global context. Our mission is to advance relevant knowledge and develop employable, innovative and diverse graduates to co-create value for society.

Minimum duration

2 years, full-time

Admission requirements

Relevant master's degree At least 65% for the research component at master's level

Plan-specific admission requirements:

A CV with contactable references may be required A copy of final master's dissertation may be required Copies of publications, if applicable An entrance interview

