

LLM Public Law

Extractive Industry Law in Africa (Coursework)

---

Programme code

04253118

Refer to Postgraduate Brochure for the complete study programme and Postgraduate Administrative Processes on the Faculty website)

For further information, please access our website: click here

Disclaimer: This publication contains information about regulations and programmes of the University of Pretoria. Amendments to or updating of the information may be effected from time to time without prior notification. The accuracy, correctness or validity of the information contained here is therefore not guaranteed by the University at any given time and is always subject to verification. The user is kindly requested to verify the correctness of the information with the University at all times. Failure to do so will not give rise to any claim or action of any nature against the University by any party whatsoever.

---

Faculty notes

For the sixth consecutive year, according to the THE (Times Higher Education) ranking, University of Pretoria Law ranks best in South Africa and Africa - a feat unequalled in Africa.

The Faculty of Law has as its mission the creation and sustenance of a research and education environment that is grounded in values of social justice and excellence.

As the law is increasingly becoming multifaceted and in certain areas more global, the Faculty maintains professional relations with many international bodies, such as the United Nations (UN), the European Union (EU), the World Bank and foreign universities.

---

Minimum duration

1 years, full-time

---

Admission requirements

LLB degree or BProc degree or relevant degree from a foreign university that allows entrance to the formal legal profession A weighted average of at least 65% at final-year level An example of a piece of academic writing relevant to the field A cover letter: motivate the desire to study in the field previous experience in the field, if any explain how the degree will be applied to contribute to sustainable development in Africa