

PGDip in Invest and Forensic A

Programme code

07220135

This programme will not only be beneficial to those individuals interested in a new area of specialisation, but will also be of interest to accountants and legal practitioners who want to hone their professional skills.

The key objectives are to develop knowledge and expertise to prevent, detect and investigate fraud, to recover funds derived from criminal activities and to recover financial awards resulting from civil disputes.

Investigative and forensic accounting is a field where the accounting and legal professions join forces in the litigation process. Judging by the international growth in this area of specialisation, this postgraduate diploma is designed to fulfil the needs of South African practitioners.

For more information, please consult the Faculty webpage.

Disclaimer: This publication contains information about regulations and programmes of the University of Pretoria. Amendments to or updating of the information may be effected from time to time without prior notification. The accuracy, correctness or validity of the information contained here is therefore not guaranteed by the University at any given time and is always subject to verification. The user is kindly requested to verify the correctness of the information with the University at all times. Failure to do so will not give rise to any claim or action of any nature against the University by any party whatsoever.

Faculty notes

The Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences aspires to be at the cutting edge of economic, financial and management education, as well as research and community engagement within the national, African and global context. Our mission is to advance relevant knowledge and develop employable, innovative and diverse graduates to co-create value for society.

Minimum duration

1 years, full-time

Admission requirements

Relevant bachelor's degree Weighted average of at least 60% at final-year level for the bachelor's degree